

Ms Ferheen Mahomed

Ms Ferheen Mahomed is the Founder and CEO of an independent consulting company called C & TM Limited providing business consultancy services to corporates and family offices in the area of transaction management and situations management.

Ferheen Mahomed was Group General Counsel having responsibility for all legal affairs, compliance matters and company secretarial services and a member of the Management Committee for Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited which owns the London Metal Exchange, until December 2020 when she set up C & TM Limited. Ferheen was instrumental in all acquisitions by HKEX and all its strategic developments and Fintech initiatives including the connect schemes, stock and bond connect, development of derivative products including the recent suite of MSCI future contracts.

Prior to this, she was the Executive Vice President for the Pacific Century Group, a conglomerate having interests in property, hotel, telecoms, insurance and asset management.

She spent almost 20 years in the finance sector as General Counsel. She was Global General Counsel and the member of the global executive committee for CLSA Asia Pacific Markets for 5 years having responsibilities for 22 countries including the US and UK and served almost 15 years as Asia Pacific General Counsel for Societe Generale having responsibilities for HK and all emerging markets in Asia and being a member of the global legal steering committee of Societe Generale in Paris responsible for developing all group legal policies and steering the group legal strategy.

Ferheen is both a UK and HK qualified lawyer having previously worked in Slaughter and May in HK and London. She is a law graduate from the University of Hong Kong and a Rhodes Scholar to St. John's College Oxford, holding a Bachelor of Civil Law Degree from Oxford.

Ferheen is heavily involved in the financial community and was a member of the product advisory committee of the SFC, member of the Asia Pacific legal and regulatory committee of ISDA and vice chairman of the banking and finance committee of the French chamber of commerce.

Ferheen is also a director of the Asian University for Women Support Foundation (Hong Kong) Limited. AUW's goal is to ensure the long term sustainability of the University which provides education for under-privileged women from Asia.

Ferheen is fluent in spoken and written English, Cantonese and Putonghua and can converse in Hindi.