

The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute Enhanced Continuing Professional Development (ECPD) Training

4th AML/CFT Conference – AML/CFT Regulations, Topical Issues, and Practical Sharing

24 November 2023

Speaker:

Mr Jason Ho

Mr Jason Ho is a Partner and lead the Financial Services Technology Risk Consulting practice of Ernst & Young (EY) in Hong Kong. He has more than 17 years of professional technology risk and privacy related compliance, technical assessment and audit, governance setup, Fintech and Regtech advisory, incident investigation, change management, implementation and training programme delivery experiences at executive level.

He specialise in the domains of information and cyber security, third party management, FinTech and RegTech (e.g. virtual banking, blockchain, virtual asset, robot, cloud, AI, eKYC, payment infrastructure, stored value facilities (SVF), multi-factor / biometric authentication), dominantly in the financial sector of Hong Kong, Greater Bay Area (GBA) and Asia-Pacific region.

On voluntary basis, he is a featured information security speaker in public seminars, regional conferences, media, guest lecturer in universities, professional examinations' trainer, and advisor to leading think-tanks regionally. He currently is a Director of ISACA (China Hong Kong Chapter) and Founding Advisor of Our Hong Kong Foundation.

He has received the highest award (i.e. Gold Award) in the Banking and Finance Sector of Cyber Security Professionals Awards of both 2017 and 2021, bestowed by the Hong Kong Police Force and HKCERT.

He has Master of Laws and Bachelor of Engineering in Information Engineering (1st class honours) degrees. He is a Fellow of HKICPA, member of ICAEW and IET, holds CISA, CISM and CISSP certificates.