New Treasury Share Regime: Overview and Practical Impacts

3 July 2024

Speaker:

Ms Amy Yu

Ms Amy Yu is a Corporate Partner of Stephenson Harwood, focusing on corporate transactions, including private and public mergers and acquisitions, and equity capital market transactions.

Amy has extensive experience in advising financial institutions, private clients and listed companies and conglomerates on their corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, corporate reorganizations, and investment agreements. She also frequently advises listed companies on compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and securities laws. She is therefore well-positioned to satisfy both transactional and compliance needs of listed companies.

In addition, Amy has throughout a large portion of her career, advised issuers, sponsors and underwriters on the listing of companies on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. She advised companies operating in a wide range of sectors, including life science, food and beverage manufacturers and retailers, real estate developers, financial institutions, industrial manufacturers and more. Her can-do attitude and attentiveness to client needs have made her a trusted adviser to many clients.
