

About the programme:

In this webinar, two seasoned Tax and Trust professionals will cover the following elements:

- What is a “family office”?
- How are family offices structured and what are the functions/services a family office would require?
- Family offices as part of wealth management planning – examples of schemes involving family offices (such as Singapore’s S.13X)
- Why is tax planning an important part of wealth management planning?