

About the programme:

Company secretary, as a governance professional, is often a go-to resource when fraud occurs. This practical seminar, with case sharing, is intended to assist governance professionals to (1) recognise potential fraud threats; (2) manage fraud risks; and (3) help to respond to a fraud. Specifically, the following topics will be covered by the speaker:

- Recent trends with case scenario sharing, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic
- Governance professionals' contribution to fraud risk management/building a fraud defence programme
- Post event responses/remediation
