

About the programme:

Regulations in Hong Kong and the Mainland on intellectual property and data protection are two separate and distinct systems. Governance professionals in Hong Kong are usually obliged to oversee the compliance matters in these two jurisdictions and are well advised to take into account their respective legal specificities and recent development. In this webinar, the following elements will be covered by the speakers:

- Intellectual Property:
 - Madrid System
 - Original Grant Patent System in Hong Kong

- Data Protection:
 - Tracking apps and collection of personal data for tracking
 - Doxxing
 - HK National Security Law
 - Chinese Civil Code and privacy rights
