

September 2021

About the programme:

A cross-sectoral Competition Law Regime was established in Hong Kong with the enactment of the Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619) (the 'Ordinance') in 2012. The enforcement guidelines and other implementing regulations under the Ordinance were finalised prior to the Ordinance coming into force in 2015.

In this seminar, the following elements will be addressed by speakers:

- Overview of the Competition Law Regime in Hong Kong
- Enforcement Actions against Infringements of the First Conduct Rule
- Defences
- The Carecraft Procedures and Leniency/Cooperation Policies
- Determination of Penalties and Usual Orders Sought by the Competition Commission
- Key Takeaway
