

Mr Ronald Pang

Mr Ronald Pang is a Barrister-at-law of Gary Soo's Chambers. He is a practicing barrister and joined the bar in 2016. Prior to joining the Bar, Ronald trained as a solicitor

His practice focuses on the areas of probate and trust, company law, commercial disputes, construction disputes, sale of goods disputes, commercial arbitration, insolvency and land law matters.

In the area of company law, Ronald has been involved in a broad spectrum of case, including matters involving cross-border insolvency disputes, shareholder disputes, rectification of companies registry documents, registration of shares application and other similar disputes.

Recently, he was part of the legal team that sought the sanctioning of scheme of arrangement for the privatization of Allied Properties (HK) Limited).

He is also the current Chair of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (East Asia Branch) Young Members Group.