

Ms Shirley Sung

Ms Shirley Sung started her career with the Company Secretarial Department of Ernst & Young. The department was later become part of Tricor Services Limited. She has been stationing in Beijing office since 2007 and is now head of the Corporate Services division of Tricor China, which provides wide spectrum of services to foreign and local clients, from selection of form of presence and establishment to on-going compliance and subsequent closure of businesses in the Mainland China.

Over the past 10 years, Shirley assisted many MNCs to select the appropriate business model, set up their own entities, alter corporate structure to cater the business needs and resolve the compliance issues. She is able to provide practical solutions and guidance to her clients from both compliance and operational perspectives.